LADIES SECTION NEWS

The 2018 golf year has started well - we welcome new lady members and it is pleasing to see more ladies joining our section and participating in our Thursday and Saturday competitions. There are 4 new time slots on a Saturday morning and 12-16 ladies are supporting this well.

Our first event of the year was Captain vs Vice/Captain and well supported with 24 ladies playing and attending the lunch afterwards.

Our ladies and juniors performed well in the Mash East/west Strokeplay event at Ruwa - CONGRATULATIONS to our Chapman ladies with the following results :

There was a field of 61 players and the tournament was played as 36 holes strokeplay. At the end of Sat 27th Jan the leader board was:

Batsi Tilowakuti 74
Danielle Bekker 77
Emily Jones 79
Shamiso Quang 79
Yollander Mubaiwa 79.

On Sunday there was more great golf played on a dry course where the greens were not holding and the putting was tough.

The final result was :

Batsi Tilowakuti 74 + 70 so 144
Danielle Bekker 77 + 71 so 148
Yollander Mubaiwa 79 + 79 so 158
Emily Jones 79 + 80 so 159.

Danielle was the winner of the Junior Trophy for the 5th consecutive year (since 2014) and off a 4 handicap she was counted out to be the Runner Up best Net on 140.

The Junior Squad was announced for the All Africa Junior Challenge Trophy in Morocco from 4th to 10th March and included :

Danielle Bekker
Margaret Nyamukondiwa
Rumbi Chisango

All three being Chapman members - 3 out of the 5 in the squad are Chapman Girls - well done. The Coach for this team is yet again our very own Cath Riley who has already started to prepare the team for this tournament. The winning girls side qualify to play in the Japan Junior World Championships later in the year

We have an active ladies committee and we are starting with a fine wine raffle hamper - tickets available from committee ladies

We wish to recognize and congratulate the Greens and Fairways committee on the excellent work being done on our course - it is greatly appreciated

We look forward to a happy golfing year and new friendships ...
